This colossal enterprise has been thoroughly reorganized and enlarged during the past Winter, for the great traveling campaign of 1872. In addition to the regular Exhibition, as it appeared at the Rink before, hundreds of novel features and many rare Wild Animals, have recently been added to the Museum and Menagerie, at an expense sufficient in themselves to constitute a first-class Show. Among these rare and curious additional novelties are the

Some of which weigh nearly 1,000 pounds. They were recently imported from the North Pacific, at a cost of $30,000.

Among the many curious and diverting features calculated to instruct and amuse the multitude, is the late extensive importation from Paris, France, and Geneva, Switzerland, of life-size,

Moving, Animal, Musical and MECHANICAL

AUTOMATONS

Of exquisite workmanship which Mr. Barnum will present, for the first time, to his American friends. The Polytechnic Institute Contains many exquisite Works of Art, Barnum's National Portrait Gallery, Looshai Glass Blowers, Statuary and Oil Paintings, Caricatures of Political Celebrities, and thousands of curious things of great extent and variety, which no manager in America, but P. T. Barnum, would think of, or invest half a million dollars to obtain.

The great International Zoological Garden contains magnificent representative specimens of the whole animal kingdom.

The Hippodrome and Dan Castello's mammoth, refined and chaste Circus, contain 100 of the most talented Artists in the Equestrian, Acrobatic, Gymnastic and Hippodromatic professions. Every feature in this department will be strictly moral, high-toned, and first class, where nothing in the least will be permitted repugnant to the sentiments of the most refined, moral, and religiously-cultured members of society.

Two Exhibitions Daily, Afternoon and Evening, Doors open at 1 and 7. Ring Performances at 2 and 8.

WILL EXHIBIT AT

Jersey City, Monday, April 15, Newark, Tuesday, April 16, Elizabeth, Wednesday, April 17,
